MARTIN'S NOSE IS BROKEN.

ZICK ABRAMS FALLS WITH HIM IN A JAM AT NEW ORLEANS.

Dargin Loses Again-Besterling Simply Canters-Kleinwood Is Injured-Only Two Winning Favorites-Several Sales,

New Orleans, La., January 29.—The track was deep and heavy at the Fair Grounds today and the racing, in consequence, was tame. There was nothing attractive about the card, even the feature race bringing together an ordinary lot. Besterling won this in a canter by a half dozen lengths. Dar was beaten off in the third race. As in his previous race, when he made so sorry a showing he was the favorite and heavily supported. fact that he is known to be one of the best mud runners here was responsible in a measure for the strong support accorded him. The winner Rickey, got all the best of the start and met with no interference. When the barrier went up Kleinwood was jammed into the fence and came out of the race with a badly cut shoulder.

In the sixth race twelve horses went to the post and they left the barrier in a bunch. Before they had gone fifty yards there was the usual jam and in the mix-up Zick Abrams fell and rolled over Jack Martin, his rider. Zick Abrams scrambled to his feet, but Martin was unconscious and it was fully ten minutes before he came to. He was bruised up about the body and had his nose broken Only two of the choices, Lawless and Grace George, won. Lawless had to stand a terrific drive to beat out Count Reinferd, while Grace George came from behind in her race and won easily. Bort-mont made a runaway affair of the second cace while Tinker had all she could do to beat Jack Lory out a neck in the seventh race.

Several horses changed hands here today. Al Weston, acting for Thomas Clyde, disposed of the three-year-old Brittanby to John Ferriss, Jr. Robert sold to W. Rodgers the three-year-old filly Sallie Preston for a reported price of $1,200. H. T. Batcheler purchased of D. L. Snow the four-year-old Colonel Preston and of W. H. Leonard the old horse Mint Sauce will be shipped to Texas and used by Mr. Batcheler as a carriage horse. A few years ago Mint Sauce was one of the fastes sprinters in the west and won several stakes here Maurice Welch added to his string by the purchas of Port Worth, which he got from G. H. Neal. J C. Shannon bought from W. F. Schulte the four year-old bay gelding Mingita, by Dr. Rice-Bound

Henry Wehmhoff, the bookmaker, arrived from Louisville this morning and will remain over until after the carnival. John Fay, his partner, will be here on Friday,

HOT SPRINGS PEOPLE ARE HOPEFUL.

Believe a Racing Commission Will Be Created -Stuart Says No Interruption.

Hot Springs, Ark., January 29,-"I do not wish understood as attempting to forecast the action of the Legislature on the Amis bill or any other measure affecting racing that might come before it," said Dan A. Stuart, part owner of the Oaklawn track, today, "but you may say with all positiveness that the Oaklawn Jockey Club will open its meeting Monday next, as announced, and that while there is, of course, a possibility of interruption, it is my belief that there will be sixty days of racing, as scheduled.'

Since the return of the delegation that attended the hearing of the Amis bill before the Committee on Agriculture of the Arkansas Legislature in Little Rock last night, the feeling is general that there will be no interruption of racing here this spring, that the Amis bill will be defeated and that a compromise measure will be successful. The arguments for and against the Amis bill occupied four hours at the end of which the committee announced that it would take the bill under advisement. It is expected that the committee will make its report to the Senate tomorrow.

The arguments made against the bill were more forceful than were those for it. It was clearly indicated to the committee that Hot Springs business men want racing and that the commercial interests of the city would be seriously affected by the closing of the tracks. The substitute bill to be offered as a compromise, it is said, will create a Tacing commission. The failure of the Oaklawn people to divide time with the Essex Park folks has much to do with the present condition of

DEATH FOLLOWS A FALL.

New Orleans, La., January 29 .- An exercise lad named Plimmer, whose home was in Toronto. at the Charity Hospital this morning from injuries sustained while cantering a two-year-old owned by H. L. Johnson. The colt, which was green, bolted fence with Plimmer and in the fall the boy's skull was fractured.

MAY FIX MONTREAL DATES TODAY.

Montreal, Quebec, January 29 .- A meeting of the directors of the Montreal Jockey Club will be held tomorrow at which it is likely the dates for inaugural meeting at the club's new plant will be announced. It is expected that there will be ten days of racing beginning the second week in June.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE PREMIER STAKES.

The tenth running of the Premier Stakes occurs this afternoon. This event has been contested by some good two-year-olds in its time, such good performers as May Beach, Sad Sam, Dick Bernard, Elsie L., Computation and Petunia figuring in its record as winners or placed horses. May Beach and Dick Bernard, in particular, were extremely speedy and useful campaigners quite familiar to Chicago patrons of racing. The record of the race is as follows:

Los Angeles, Cal., January 29 .- A murky afternoon with a slight drizzle at times, kept the attendance Ascot Park down to the regulars. Secretary Boden presented a fair card which was productive of several rousing finishes. The most pretentions offering of the day was the handicap which went to the lightly weighted Wrenne. Von Tromp was the heavily supported favorite, but the best he could do was to run an indifferent third. A. Muskoday ap peared the winner when an eighth out, but was un able to withstand Wrenne's challenge, losing by a

WHY TREVELYAN WANTS TO QUIT.

Says It Is Due to the State of His Health-His Letter to Barnes.

New Orleans, La., January 29. Manager H. D. Barnes, of the New Orleans Jockey Club, today re ceived a letter from Judge Trevelyan from Char lottesville, Va., which sets at rest all rumors as to why Mr. Trevelyan desires to retire, temporarily at least, from an official capacity in racing.

Mr. Barnes said: "All these stories about friction between Mr. Trevelyan and Mr. Corrigan are made out of the whole cloth. There is nothing in them As a matter of fact, Mr. Trevelyan refused to here to serve in the judges' come here to serve in the judges' stand on the personal solicitation of myself and Mr. Heaslip and it was only on the request by letter of Mr. Corrigan that he consented to again fill the position of pre siding judge at our track."

Mr. Barnes expressed the belief that in spite of Mr. Trevelyan's illness he would be at the opening of the next City Park meeting. Mr. Trevelyan's letter is as follows

"Charlottesville, Va., January 24.—I got home last night, but feeling in very bad shape, and this morn ing I am more convinced than ever of what I told you last Monday-that I have got to have a com plete rest for a long period if I am to keep going at all. If yau can possibly arrange it, please put comebody else in the stand at your coming meetings. My voice is still as it was when I last talked to you, and that in itself is a big drawback, even if I felt well in other ways. I think the doctor here was right when he said that I had partial paralysis of the vocal chords.

"As regards the judgeship, please wire if and when they have the matter settled, so I can have ny mind at ease, for please believe me. I have no wish or intention to occasion you folks any inconven

IT WAS EVER THUS.

In the San Francisco Chronicle of last Friday, the day before the running of the Burns Handicap, there was published the opinions as to the probable results of the big race of forty-eight men who are regarded at Oakland as experts in matters pertaining to racing. Only one, H. D. Beams, expressed the belief that Kercheval would win and only one other, W. Soule, mentioned the name of the Conran candidate at all. The majority of them thought Nealon would win on a fast track and gave preference to Proper should the track be muddy. A few thought Logistilla would win. This is but another illustration of the fact that horsemen and bookmakers are generally inattentive to the per formances of animals not racing day after day under their very eyes and they are ever ready to discredit the chances of the newcomer, unless the newspapers dinged his supposed prowess into their for days, and even then they are reluctant to admit that such a horse has better than an outside chance to defeat their own particular choices.

WRENNE WINS HANDICAP IN A DRIVE. M'CORMICK'S SUCCESS ON THE TURF. Hasn't Made Millions, but He Is Comfortably

Fixed-A Good Judge of Horses.

New Orleans, La., January 29.—James H. Mc-Cormick is not only the dean of the eastern delegation of borsemen racing here, but he may also be regarded as having been the most continuously successful, as he has been a money maker on the turf in an active career extending over a period of twenty-five years or more. Mr. McCormick is one of the best judges of horses, as well as one of the best trainers in the country. He is one of the comparatively few men in the business who can successfully prepare a horse for an important fu-ture event and win it, as the phrase goes, "the first crack out of the box." He is a good judge of every angle of racing, as was shown last winter when he raced a stable of horses at City Park. Mr. McCormick did not get together a collection of cheap animals for winter racing. On the contrary he brought down three high-class performers in Monet, Emergency and Grenade, accepted high-weights—and short prices in most instances in the betting—and got the money. Western handicappers figure closely on weight, and naturally enough where horses of about the same calibre are coming togeth day after day. But this theory did not apply to McCormick's weight carriers and it was a con-siderable time before the local betting fraternity awoke to the fact that the easterner had a lot up his sleeve and that he could win under almost any conditions when his horses were fit. Mr. McCormick brought his three "freighters," as well as jockey Garner, on whom he has first call for the winter, with him again this season, but met with a misfortune recently when Monet, just as he was round-ing into form, was carried into the fence and had three ribs fractured, an injury that is likely to put him out of commission for months to come

With the exception of his engagement as trainer for L. V. Bell, when he was the owner of Hermis and other good ones, McCormick has practically devoted his time and attention to handling his own The three years of prosperous racing at Guttenberg was the beginning of the comfortable fortune that he has amassed on the turf. McCormick was the kingpin of Guttenberg racing. He had a powerful stable in J. A. Flynn, one of the best jockeys then riding. He had strong financial connections behind him, and in a betting ring that during the last two winters of racing at the Jersey track had an average of close to one hundred books on daily, big enough commissions could be placed at the odds-on prices usually offered against his candidates to win a lot of money. Two of the best horses that McCormick raced in those days were Early Blossom and Autocrat, by Prince Charlie. Autocrat was one of the smoothest actioned horses of that period and since his retirement to the stud he has sired several fair performers.

The elder Belmont had no little admiration for McCormick's horsmanship. Mr. Belmont raced his Some of his colt culls horses only in the stakes. he sold to McCormick while some of the fillies not up to stake form were leased to him with the understanding that if run in selling races McCormick must protect them, as Mr. Belmont rarely permitted any of his fillies, out of his grandly bred and high priced imported mares, to get out of his hands. One of the fillies thus leased to McCormick was Glory, the dam of Glamor, now racing here. One day McCormick started Glory in a selling race at Clifton, entering her for $1,000. He took considerable money out of the ring over her victory, but after the race some bookmaker, who had been hit hard, bid her up to $4,000 knowing that McCormick could not let her go. It was a bitter pill for Mc-Cormick, but there was no recourse, there was nothing for it but to protect the filly, which he did.

The next day McCormick wrote Mr. Belmont a letter, acquainting him with the facts. He stated that he was a poor man and that he thought Mr. Belmont ought to make good half the run up, $1,500. McCormick received in reply a character istic, tart memorandum from Mr. Belmont stating that he had nothing to do with the matter, that he (McCormick) would have to stand the loss. It was equally characteristic of the famous banker and sportsman that one day at the Jerome Park spring meeting, two months later, when he n McCormick in the paddock he should call out: "Jimmy, come over here." "Jimmy" went over to him. "Come into the secretary's office, Jimmy." "Jimmy" went in, the old gentleman hauled out his check book, wrote a check for $1,500, handed it to McCormick, and said, "Jimmy, you did right to protect my mare."

MORE HORSES FOR HOT SPRINGS.

New Orleans, La., January 29.—Three carloads of horses, comprising the lots of the following owners, were shipped to Hot Springs today: M. Welch, G. H. Mead, J. Garson, George Hill, V. Hollar, C. Drake, Haley & Williams, J. A. Mundy, and Mower & Ammerman.

OAKLAND JUDGES TAKE QUICK ACTION ON FURY'S RIDER.

Tony Faust Makes Good For His Supporters Outsiders Win Half the Card-Better Weather in Prospect.

Oakland, Cal., January 29 .- Jockey T. Sullivan was indefinitely suspended today by the stewards of the California Jockey Club. Official action was taken immediately after he dismounted from horse Fury in the fifth race. The Crescendo gelding, a heavily backed favorite, finished a bad seventh, some thirteen lengths behind Judge, the rejuvenated winner of the race. Sullivan has been universally suspected and execrated as a crook for the past three years and, even if not guilty of wrong doing in this particular instance, there is general public commendation forthcoming for the action of the stewards.

Import, Pink and Judge, all extreme outsiders, but well supported in the betting, captured half the card. By dint of hard riding Walter Miller got up to win the second with Huerfano. In the closing race Miller rode Dorado, the favorite, to an easy

Today's feature, the handicap at five and a half furlongs, fourth on the card, was easy for Tony Faust. The Sain colt's race on Saturday, when he was beaten by Grasscutter and Ocean 'Shore, was not taken seriously by either the bookmakers or the public. He was held at short odds and backed with extreme confidence, making good in the most decis-

BUSY MORNING AT OAKLAWN TRACK. Horses From Memphis Go Into Quarters for the Meeting-Hot Springs Gossip.

Hot Springs, Ark., January 29.—The Memphis delegation with about 150 horses, spent the morning getting into quarters at Oaklawn. The band comthe strings of Chinn & Forsythe, J. W. May, Fred Luzader, L. A. Cella, Henry McDaniel, R. L. Thomas, C. Pangritz, H. R. Baker, W. M. Wallace, J. C. Milam, and J. S. Hawkins. Fred Forsythe left Montgomery at Memphis to be prepared for the Crescent City Derby. Forsythe feels sure this colt will win the big race at the Fair Grounds. Joe Hawkins brought Wing Ting and Hyperion II. Both are in fit racing condition and are reported to have shown sensational trials at Montgomery Park. P. T. Chinn, who will campaign Pretension and the Futurity winner Savable, will arrive here from Memphis tomorrow. D. Austin will do most of the saddle work for T. P. Hayes, while J. C. Milam will have second call. Aubuchon, who leaves New Orleans next Saturday, will ride as a free lance. Others who will be seen frequently in the saddle here are Schilling, Helgesen, J. J. Walsh, Perrett, J. Lee, J. Foley, and Cherry. The latter will do most of the riding for Henry McDaniel, who is training the string owned by Louis Cella.

Eole Pearsoll, Leo Mayer, "Billy" Coleman, Fred Eshner and John Woolf are among the bookmakers John Condon will arrive here Thursday and L. A. Cella has also signified his intention of LENS TO RUN IN KENTUCKY DERBY.

Louisville, Ky., January 29 .- Lyman H. Davis. Secretary of the New Louisville Jockey Club, is back after a trip to New Orleans, Memphis and Nashville, where he procured nominations for stake events, which will close Friday. He says the entries for the stakes will be the largest in the history of the club.

Pat Dunne informed him when he was at New Orleans that Lens would surely start in the Kentucky Derby. Arcite, owned by George J. Long, owner of Sir Huon, is looked upon as a certain starter. Salvidere is among the eligibles, but nobody knows whether John E. Madden will consent to start him so early in the year. If Salvidere should go to the post he would be a strong favorite, no doubt, his presence being the means of reducing the field almost to a minimum. Schreiber is represented by both Jack Atkin and Tony Faust. Edward Corrigan may try for the Derby with his filly Catherine H. Elmer Railey thinks he has the winner in Holdfast, a brother to Allowmaise.

FOUST BILLS IN THE HOUSE.

Nashville, Tenn., January 29 .- The Foust bills the original measure which was passed by the Senate January 25, and the second bill making it a felony to keep a racetrack where gambling in any form is permitted and which was passed unanimou by the Senate yesterday, had their first reading in the house today and will go to the judiciary committee after their second reading tomorrow.

The house bill which was introduced by Representative Benham, of Memphis, yesterday, and which provides for a racing commission as a compromise for the Foust bills, had its second reading today and is now in the hands of the committee.

WILL RIDE AS A FREE LANCE.

Lexington, Ky., January 29.—Luclen Lyne has returned from New York. He says he has decided to ride in England this year, but that he has not signed a contract. He says he will ride as a free lance.

Fifth Race-7-8 Mile.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

Daily Racing Form will publish from time to time a table of the rating of the jockeys riding on American tracks, based on their performances in the saddle. The best riders will be given the uni-form rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys, three points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the table. The following is the present rating:

Winner—B. c, by Mazagan—Pink Rose (trained by J. R. Walker).

Went to post at 2:18. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handlly: second easily; third the same, Magazine, after being reserved for the stretch run, overhauled Booger Red midway of the stretch and, under a sharp hand ride, outstayed him and won going away. Booger Red raced Katle Rains into early subjection and responded gamely to punishment when challenged by the winner. Katle Rains showed the most early speed, but tired under pressure. It was strictly a three-horse race.

Winner—Br. c, by Eddie Jones—Free Love (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 2:07. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same; third easily. Huerfano broke well, but is a very slow beginner and was shuffled to the rear, then got up in a sensational closing sprint and likes a route. Avona, away poorly, got into a long lead quickly and tired at the end in consequence of early excessive use. Water Thrush, from a striding start, was a forward contender throughout and an easing up third. Bill Perry made up ground from a poor start. Sharper Bawn, nearly left, closed a big gap. El Primero retired early and ran a bad race. Red Era showed superior early speed and is worth watching. Sain Shot is high in flesh and not ready.

Scratched—Yarboro, 94.

Incorrect weight in entries—Water Thrush, 105.

Overweights—Huerfano, 2 pounds; Avona, 4; Water Thrush, 2; Sharper Bawn, 2; El Primero, 2; Red Era, 2; Politic, 2; My Pal, 1.

Winner—Ch. f., by Rapallo—May Pinkerton (trained by W. P. Fine).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Pink, from a striding start, quickly overhauled the leader and got into a long lead on the far turn, but tired and just lasted out the journey. Anna Karenina broke slowly and worked through on the inside, then finished like a shot, but failed to get up and was best. Ella True made the early running, but was quickly displaced by the winner and held on into an easy third. Calla quit on the last turn. Gold Heather finished well. Calendar got away poorly and lacked speed.

Overweights—Calla, 2 pounds.

Winner—Blk, h, by Atheling—Judy (trained by E. J. Ramsey).
Went to post at 3:26. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Judge, astonishingly improved in staying, led by a wide gap to the last furlong, but finished tiring badly.
Trapsetter was in a forward position throughout and came with a belated end rush, barely failing to get up. Box Elder, shuffled back at the half and messed about, finished well and gamely earned tuird place.
Briartho-pe, shut off at the start, gained steadily in the last half. Sir Carter came unexpectedly fast at the end. Swagger quit badly at the end of six furlongs. Fury seemed unable to raise a respectable gallop. Royal Red wants a slower track. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—66656 Daniel C., 104.

Winner—Ch. g, by Amigo—Fame (trained by W. Cahill).

Went to post at 3:53. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter: second driving; third easily.

Dorado broke slowly and was carried wide on the first turn, was then reserved for the first half and dashed into the lead when called on and won off pulling up. Beechwood took up the running on the backstretch, but was shuffled back in the inside deep going at the half, then came on fast and earned a game second ad was a good horse today. Ed Sheridan, well in hand for the first half, succumbed in the accelerated pace of the last half, was an easy going third, however, and shows steady improvement. La Rose showed early speed and put up a game finish., Tawasentha favors sloppy going with a hard bottom and was unable to stride freely in today's going. The winner was bid up from $800 to $1,200 by F. H. Cook and bought in.

Went to post at 2:02. At post 1 minute. Start good. Wen driving; second and third the same. Lawless drew up on the inside on the far turn and came through next to the rail when the leaders spread out and took command in the stretch, but had to be ridden hard all of the last furlong to retain the lead. Count Reinferd ran well and was in the middle of the track for the entire trip and was interfered with slightly by the winner, which repeatedly swerved across in front of him. Jimmy H., a good breaker, showed speed, but tired in the stretch run and was probably a bit shert. Black Hawk finished fast. Antoine evidently did not fancy the going. C. M. Lowe ran very green and bolted to the outside fence when entering the homestretch.

Besterling, a good horse today, was favored by the going and ridden with judgment, was saved in the early stages, delayed his move until straightened out in the homestretch, then drew away and won eased up. Missouri Lad, away well and on the inside all the way, set the pace for seven furlongs and then tired. Flavigny closed up gamely after being outrum for the first half. James Reddick was a keen contender for seven furlongs, but tired badly in the last quarter. Light Note showed speed and likes a shorter route.

Winner—Ch. f, by Star Ruby—Frolicsome II. (trained by F. Noble).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Grace George was outbroke at the start and on the outside all the way, moved up fast on the turn into the homestretch, where John Kaufman bore out with her and knocked her off her stride, then finished with a rush when straightened out and was going away. Lamptrimmer is a rapid breaker, left the barrior with a rush and set a fast pace, but slipped and sprawled when Farrow drow his whip. John Kaufman was interfered with all of the first sixteenth, had to bump his way through, worked his way up next to the rail in the deep going, went wide when entering the homestretch and tired under a drive. Mary Ellen and Camp showed prominently on the turn into the homestretch, but failed to stay.

READ THIS OVER CAREFULLY. TWO GRAND SPECIALS

FRIDAY AND MONDAY AT NEW ORLEANS.

ATTENTION! These two horses, like BOSERRIAN, 10-1. won, and E. M. FRY, 2-1, won, which we adversised so strong last week, are specially prepared for a big killing, and we assure you that if you will play these two goodthings, you will never regret it.

As we carneatly desire you to give us a trial, we will make you a Special Offer, and give you these Two Grand Specials for Friday, Feb 1st, and Monday, Feb. 4th, for the price of ONE—(82) TWO DOLLARS.

If you want to have a bet on two of the best things put over at New Orleans, get your order in ut once, as we only do this to convince you we get the right kind of track information.

REMEMBER-We show you the track wire of the horse
